Special gift for Coach Tony

Ashley McGowan, Junior softball player at Marvin Ridge HS, Waxhaw, NC prepared this magazine cover page for "the best coach of all time".

Ashley has taken numerous private softball lessons from Tony Womack, MLB All-Star player over the past year. She contributes her playing success on Womack's "eyes out front" philosophy.

Ashley has committed to play softball at Tennessee Tech University in Cookeville, TN, where she plans to implement the softball techniques Womack has taught her to master.
